DETAILED ACTION

1. This application is a 371 of PCT/JP04/18859. The preliminary amendment to the claims has been entered. Claims 4-6, 10, and 13-15 were amended. Claims 1-15 are pending.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1, 2, 4-6 and 14 are objected to because of the following informalities:
 - a. Claim 1 appears to contain a period in the middle of the claim after “1 to 12 carbon atoms”. Since a claim may only comprise a single sentence, the period should be changed to a comma.
 - b. Claim 2 also appears to contain a period in the middle of the claim. (The word “Among” starts a new sentence.) The claim should be corrected to comprise only one sentence.
 - c. Claim 5 also appears to contain a period in the middle of the claim. (The word “Among” starts a new sentence.) The claim should be corrected to comprise only one sentence.
 - d. In claim 4, it is suggested that “as defined in above 2” at the end of the claim be changed to “as defined in formula (2)” for the purpose of clarity.
 - e. In claim 6, third line, “formula (2))” should be changed to “formula (2)”.
 - f. In claim 14, “comprisesthe” should be changed to “comprises the”.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 15 recites “A light source for surface emission, a backlight for a display unit, a display unit, an illumination device or an interior or exterior accessory using the light-emitting device described in claim 13.” It is unclear if the recited light source for surface emission, backlight for a display unit, display unit, illumination device or interior or exterior accessory actually require the light emitting device of claim 13. Furthermore, it is unclear if applicant is intending to claim a method. For the purpose of examination in terms of prior art, the examiner currently interprets the word “using” to mean “comprising”.

Clarification and/or correction are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nakamura et al. (JP 2000-297118 A). Nakamura et al. discloses the following compound:

[3]

R2 may be a hydrogen or substituent (see par. 21). The boron atom is attached to a nitrogen-containing heterocyclic group, which reads upon instant formula 1 wherein X is "a divalent hydrocarbon group having 1 to 20 carbon atoms which may have a hetero atom" (see par. 22 and 23). R5 is hydrogen or alkyl per the instant R16 group (see par. 21).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-14 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claim 15 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. The prior art fails to teach or to render obvious a polymer compound, light emitting polymer, or device comprising the polymer compound as specifically set forth in these claims.
